Notes for Maria (Mary) Margherita Elena LoDico:

Maria (Mary) married Americo Faiella and lived at 15 Newton St., Mansfield, Mass. with Americo at her father Ignazio's house according to the 1920 census.

My Aunt Mary once told me of the story of her arrival at Ellis Island as a child of 10. She recalled being separated along with her sister Giovanna (Jenny) from her mother Francesca and baby brother Vincenzo by a doctor. They both had eye infections. She recalled every morning the doctor would take her to the window and reach in his lab coat for a small green stone. He would then rub it across her eye. This was very painful and made her cry. One day while at lunch, she spotted her mother across the crowded hall. The family was finally reunited.

Years later, while watching a special show on Ellis Island, they spoke of an common eye infection by emigrating Italians. Called 'Mediterranean Eye' or Trachoma, a doctor would treat the encrustation around the eye by rubbing a small jade colored bar of medicine (copper based] on the eye. After a few weeks the infection was reduced and emigration was allowed.

Notes for Rodolfo Calimero Pietro Antonio Carmino Faiella:

My Uncle Rodolfo (Rudy) Faiella was a professional wrestler in the 1920s. He was known as 'The Whirlwind'. The stories told by his brother Americo and sons Alfred and Luigi spoke of a man of great strength. Once he got a grip on his opponent, it was all over.

As young men, Americo and Rodolfo would travel from town to town giving wrestling demonstrations and challenging the Italian men to matches for money. Rodolfo rarely lost.

As one story goes, while standing in a railroad yard, Rodolfo and Americo were discussing a possible match with a group of men. Rodolfo looked down at a cast iron train rail and said he could lift it completely off the ground all by himself.

Everyone looked at the rail. It was a massive ' I ' beam about 30 feet long. A few men tried to lift up one end and could barely get it a few inches off the ground. The bets were placed.

Rodolfo grabbed one end and hoisted over his shoulder. He walked down the rail to the center and lifted it off the ground in one quick move.

31. Francesca (Paula) Barbara Restivo, born Jun 06, 1869 in Villalba, Sicily; died Jan 11, 1952 in Quincy, Mass.. She was the daughter of 62. Carmelo Restivo and 63. Arcangela Ristagno.

Notes for Ignazio LoDico:

My father's only recollection of his father, my grandfather Ignazio, was that of a child around age 5 or 6. Ignazio died when my father was 7. My dad recalled that Ignazio would come home late from working in his barber shop off Pleasant St. in Mansfield, Mass., and empty his pockets full of change in his top dresser drawer. As a small boy, my father would sneak in the bedroom and go through the drawer and take a few coins. He said he never was caught.

My Uncle Americo Faiella, husband of Mary LoDico, recalled the time he approached Ignazio to ask for the hand of Mary and his blessing. Americo said Ignazio "called me down", referring to the fact that Ignazio thought it was time Americo, then a young man of 22, should begin to settle down and think of his future and how to act properly as a 'man' about to be married. Americo said Ignazio gave him cause to think and do the right thing.

My Aunt Angelina had the best recollection of her father Ignazio and the family's last days in Marianopoli. She was around 14 at the time. She recalls her older brother Frank had a bird and he made a cage for it. Frank was good with his hands. He raised the bird until one day the cat killed it. Saddened by this, Ignazio told him, "Get another bird".

In 1906, the family would often hold a dance with supper in Marianopoli. The family played a few instruments including the mandolin, guitar, and violin. Two rich kids came by and began to cause trouble so Ignazio kicked them out. When Frank left his music lessons, they were waiting for him. They pulled out their guns and beat him up. The left him at the doorstep at 4 o'clock in the morning. The doctor reported the beating to the police and one kid, Salvatore Marci was sent to jail. When he got out of jail, Francesca Paola was worried, so Frank left for America (Pennsylvania). In 1907, September, Francesca was still worried so Ignazio went to America for a second time. Then the others followed.

Notes for Francesca (Paula) Barbara Restivo:

My grandmother's middle name Barbara comes from the Sicilian patron saint of masons. Her father, Carmelo Restivo was a stone mason in Villalba, Sicily.

FRANCESCA (PAULA) BARBARA RESTIVO LODICO:

Children of Ignazio LoDico and Francesca Restivo are:

- i. Salvatore LoDico, born Nov 14, 1884 in Marianopoli, Sicily; died Jun 14, 1885 in Marianopoli, Sicily.
- ii. Francesco (Frank) LoDico, born Jun 02, 1886 in Marianopoli, Sicily; died 1948 in Mansfield, Mass; married (1) Catherine Lillian Cartwright Lanergan; born Aug 03, 1902 in Boston, Mass.; died Sep 21, 1973 in Attleboro, Mass.; married (2) Myatto UNKNOWN; born 1902.

Notes for Francesco (Frank) LoDico:

1907 - Francesco Ignazio LoDico (21), eldest son of Ignazio and Francesca Paola LoDico has his life threatened over a girl. Francesca, fearing the worst for her son, sends him to the United States. He boards the Sannio, out of Palermo and arrives at Ellis Island on September 26, 1907. Francesco travels to Syracuse / Buffalo, NY to live with the Restivo or Ristagno family.

He married the former Catherine Lillian Cartwright Lanergan and they had 4 children together. Francesco (Frank) was very proud to be American and was quite patriotic. He was a Barber by trade and a sign painter, but it was the depression, so the family was not wealthy, but they did alright considering the times.

Frank was renowned as a terrific gardener and grew squash and zucchini that were 3 ft long! We have photos of him holding one of his famous vegetables.

Frank had a reputation as a prankster. When he first opened his barber shop in Mansfield, Mass., in the late 1920's, he would constantly tease and joke with the old Italian men who came to hang out at the barber shop. One story tells of how he would entertain the men with tales of his fighting in the Risorgimento and as a Carbonari. He would tell them before he served as a Sicilian patriot he was tall and strong. He would say now, after years of fighting for Sicily, he was shrinking. He would point to the ceiling fan and show how he could just reach the pull cord. The next day he would come in early and shorten the cord. He would tell another tale and then end with reaching for the pull cord. The old men looked on in wonder as he could not reach the cord. Only when they agreed he was shrinking would he burst out in laughter and tell them the joke.

Frank died suddenly of heart failure when in his late 50's. His wife Catherine moved to Attleboro to live with her daughter Paula and they worked at Balfour Company in Attleboro, MA. When Joan was divorced from her husband, she joined her mother and sister and they resided together. Catherine (Kay) died in 1973 of heart failure.

The 1930 census shows Catherine age 27, Frank age 43, son Frank Jr. (Buster) age 5, and son Randolph age 2 years 5 months living at 15 Newton St., Mansfield, Mass. in his mother Francesca's home. Frank had a barber shop in town.

- iii. Carlo Eugenio LoDico, born Mar 21, 1888 in Marianopoli, Sicily; died Mar 12, 1889 in Marianopoli, Sicily.

Notes for Carlo Eugenio LoDico:

Although there is no death record for Carlo, he does not appear in the marriage record of Ignazio & Francesca Paola in 1896. Also there is no side note in his birth certificate indicating he witnessed the wedding. Most likely he died around 1889.

- iv. Salvatrice (Sally) LoDico, born Jan 14, 1890 in Marianopoli, Sicily; died 1922 in Mansfield, Mass; married (1) Romeo Pianosi; born Feb 09, 1885 in Fano, Italy; died Aug 16, 1946 in Mansfield, Mass.; married (2) Tomaso Guerro Jun 30, 1912 in Mansfield, Massachusetts; died 1916 in Massachusetts.

Notes for Salvatrice (Sally) LoDico:

In the San Prospero church records of Marianopoli, Sicily is the baptism of Salvatrice on page 302 #8 on 1/16/1890. The side note indicates her marriage to Tommaso Guerro in 1912 in Milford? [Mansfield] America.

Their children were Curcio and Sylvio. Sylvio's wife was Althea. Salvatrice later married Romeo Pianos and their child was Irma Pianos. Irma married Guerrino Eusepi. Their children are Sally, Rosie, Joanne, Carla, and Linda.

Notes for Angela (Angelina) LoDico:

Angelina married Aristodemo (Rooster) Albertini. Their children are Rena, Aurora, Eleanor, and Alfred.

Angelina emigrated from Marianopoli to Mansfield and went to work in Mansfield's chocolate factory the first week she arrived. She made $4 a week wages.

My grandfather Ignazio was famous for writing passion plays in Mansfield in the early years of living in Mansfield [1910-1920]. Angelina performed in these passion plays. The entire family played instruments, danced and sang and continued to entertain in Mansfield as they had done in Marianopoli, Sicily.

My earliest memories of Angelina was from 1956 and attending 1st grade. I would have to walk past her home and many times I would be ushered inside to have lunch. My Aunt Angelina spoke little English, yet I somehow understood enough of what she said. Her house was always filled with the smells of Sicilian twist bread and homemade pasta. It seemed she was always cooking, making breads and pastas, yet she lived alone.

Notes for Carmelo (Charlie) LoDico:

In the San Prospero church records of Marianopoli, Sicily, the baptism of Carmelo is recorded on page 83 #37 3/20/1895 with the side note on 6/9/1935 Carmelo married Maria Selvaggio {Mary Savage} in St. John Rectory in Quincy, Mass.

They had no children. Carmelo and Mary ran a beauty shop on Germain Ave., in Quincy in the 1930s. Carmelo was a barber and Mary was a hairdresser. In the 1940s their beauty shop was on 21 Granite St.

My dad's favorite story to tell about his brother Charlie (who was 4'10) was having to come home after school as a teenage to violin lessons. Charlie, the older brother would demand that my father go upstairs and practice. One day after Charlie left the house, my father stopped practicing and was checking out his brother's clothes in the closet. He tried on one of his dress shirts and discovered he couldn't button the collar. When Charlie came home and found his brother not practicing he threatened him as usual. My dad stood up to him and said his days playing the violin were over. Charlie looked at him, up and down, then agreed.

My father's nickname was 'Bed'. Many of his closest friends, even most of our relatives thought it was given to him because of his fondness to sleep in late in the morning after spending all night out.

Luciano listed his occupations, with each child, as follows: campiere (armed field guard) (1870 & 1880); mounted soldier (1873- 1878); mounted guard (1882); mounted soldier (1887); soldier (1880); and finally a 'soprastante' (overseer) (1892).

A 'soprastante' was charged, by the land-owner or lease-holder, to take charge of the management of an estate. The soprastante', as a rule, were strong men and were recruited for this post, from those who were able to 'make themselves respected -- inspire fear -- among the people of the estates, as well as outsiders. Most overseers were men of confidence (uomo di fiducia) of the 'gabelloto' lease-owner. He dealt with the peasants set to work on the estates and took care of the general protection of the enterprise. He was usually assisted by an armed campiere on horseback, who watched over the fields, crops, and animals.

Like the overseer, a campiere (armed field guard) had a reputation for toughness, which they advertised by their arrogant airs and their carrying of arms. The ways in which some of them dressed, moved around, and squinted, symbolized toughness. Their reticence and the opaque ambiguity of phrases, gestures, and mimic signs they used among their peers set them apart from ordinary people.

Those these strong arm men were, at times, strikingly polite and cordial, their general behavior and outfit expressed a capacity and willingness to coerce with physical violence. The campiere constituted a kind of private police force which, in the absence of an efficient formal control apparatus, claimed to maintain law and order in the countryside.

Notes for Cristofaro LoDico:

The story of the LoDico ancestry begins in Malpasso and is tied to one of the most ancient roads in Sicily.. By the end of the 17th century there was still one road that went from the coastal town of Catania, inland through the Madonie mountains to the north coastal town of Palermo. This roadway was one of the very first roads in Sicily and was used by the first of the island's inhabitants: the Sicans, Sicels, and Elymians. In its earliest times the towns of Centuripe and Agyrium brought an exchange of goods arriving by sea with ceramics and obsidian brought out from inland. This road was later improved by the Romans and it passed through Blufi in a region called Malpasso [bad pass]. This was a dangerous stretch of road known for its steep ravines and high bluffs where criminals and others would attack and rob the travelers. The priests, pilgrims, and merchants complained to the Sicilian nobility and asked for protection. The Marchese Pottino who owned many large estates of land and farms around Rusuttano and Blufi, including the ancestral Castello Irosa, entered into an agreement with three Sicilian campiere families: the LaTonas, the di Geracis, and the LoDicos. In return for protecting the travelers on the road, the LoDico family was given the land known as Malpasso.
