Alfred was buried on 11 Feb 1968 in Mansfield, Bristol, Massachusetts, United States. My father's nickname was 'Bed'. Many of his closest friends, even most of our relatives thought it was given to him because of his fondness to sleep in late in the morning after spending all night out.

The truth is, his mother Francesca used to call for him by yelling "Beddu".

Beddu is the Sicilian word for handsome. His friends picked up on the name and the nickname stuck.

Fifth Generation

28. Ignazio LoDico was born on 22 Aug 1862 in Bompietro, Sicilia, Italy. He was buried in 1922 in Mansfield, Bristol, Massachusetts, United States. He died chronic glomerular nephritis on 25 Mar 1922 at the age of 59 in Mansfield, Bristol, Massachusetts, United States. My father's only recollection of his father, my grandfather Ignazio, was that of a child around age 5 or 6. Ignazio died when my father was 7. My dad recalled that Ignazio would come home late from working in his barber shop off Pleasant St. in Mansfield, Mass., and empty his pockets full of change in his top dresser drawer. As a small boy, my father would sneak in the bedroom and go through the drawer and take a few coins. He said he never was caught.

My Uncle Americo Faiella, husband of Mary LoDico, recalled the time he approached Ignazio to ask for the hand of Mary and his blessing. Americo said Ignazio "called me down", referring to the fact that Ignazio thought it was time Americo, then a young man of 22, should begin to settle down and think of his future and how to act properly as a 'man' about to be married. Americo said Ignazio gave him cause to think and do the right thing.

My Aunt Angelina had the best recollection of her father Ignazio and the family's last days in Marianopoli. She was around 14 at the time. She recalls her older brother Frank had a bird and he made a cage for it. Frank was good with his hands. He raised the bird until one day the cat killed it. Saddened by this, Ignazio told him, "Get another bird".

In 1906, the family would often hold a dance with supper in Marianopoli. The family played a few instruments including the mandolin, guitar, and violin. Two rich kids came by and began to cause trouble so Ignazio kicked them out. When Frank left his music lessons, they were waiting for him. They pulled out their guns and beat him up. They left him at the doorstep at 4 o'clock in the morning. The doctor reported the beating to the police and one kid, Salvatore Marci was sent to jail. When he got out of jail, Francesca Paola was worried, so Frank left for America (Pennsylvania). In 1907, September, Francesca was still worried so Ignazio went to America for a second time. Then the others followed.

Ignazio LoDico and Francesca Paola Barbara Restivo had the following children:

- i. Salvatore LoDico was born on 14 Nov 1884 in Marianopoli, Caltanissetta, Sicily, Italy. He died on 14 Jun 1885 at the age of 0 in Marianopoli, Caltanissetta, Sicily, Italy. He was buried in Marianopoli, Caltanissetta, Sicily, Italy.

- ii. Francesco "Frank" LoDico was born on 2 Jun 1886 in Marianopoli, Caltanissetta, Sicily, Italy. He died on 22 Apr 1949 at the age of 62 in Mansfield, Bristol, Massachusetts, United States. He was buried in Mansfield, Bristol, Massachusetts, United States. 1907 - Francesco Ignazio LoDico (21), eldest son of Ignazio and Francesca Paola LoDico has his life threatened over a girl. Francesca, fearing the worst for her son, sends him to the United States. He boards the Sannio, out of Palermo and arrives at Ellis Island on September 26, 1907. Francesco travels to Syracuse / Buffalo, NY to live with the Restivo or Ristagno family.

He married the former Catherine Lillian Cartwright Lanergan and they had 4 children together. Francesco (Frank) was very proud to be American and was quite patriotic. He was a Barber by trade and a sign painter, but it was the depression, so the family was not wealthy, but they did alright considering the times.

Frank was renowned as a terrific gardener and grew squash and zucchini that were 3 ft long! We have photos of him holding one of his famous vegetables.

Frank had a reputation as a prankster. When he first opened his barber shop in Mansfield, Mass., in the late 1920's, he would constantly tease and joke with the old Italian men who came to hang out at the barber shop. One story tells of how he would entertain the men with tales of his fighting in the Risorgimento and as a Carbonari. He would tell them before he served as a Sicilian patriot he was tall and strong. He would say now, after years of fighting for Sicily, he was shrinking. He would point to the ceiling fan and show how he could just reach the pull cord. The next day he would come in early and shorten the cord. He would tell another tale and then end with reaching for the pull cord. The old men looked on in wonder as he could not reach the cord. Only when they agreed he was shrinking would he burst out in laughter and tell them the joke.

Frank died suddenly of heart failure when in his late 50's. His wife Catherine moved to Attleboro to live with her daughter Paula and they worked at Balfour Company in Attleboro, MA. When Joan was divorced from her husband, she joined her mother and sister and they resided together. Catherine (Kay) died in 1973 of heart failure.

Angelina was buried in Mansfield, Bristol, Massachusetts, United States. Angelina married Aristodemo (Rooster) Albertini. Their children are Rena, Aurora, Eleanor, and Alfred.

Angelina emigrated from Marianopoli to Mansfield and went to work in Mansfield's chocolate factory the first week she arrived. She made $4 a week wages.

My grandfather Ignazio was famous for writing passion plays in Mansfield in the early years of living in Mansfield [1910-1920]. Angelina performed in these passion plays. The entire family played instruments, danced and sang and continued to entertain in Mansfield as they had done in Marianopoli, Sicily.

My earliest memories of Angelina was from 1956 and attending 1st grade. I would have to walk past her home and many times I would be ushered inside to have lunch. My Aunt Angelina spoke little English, yet I somehow understood enough of what she said. Her house was always filled with the smells of Sicilian twist bread and homemade pasta. It seemed she was always cooking, making breads and pastas, yet she lived alone.

In the San Prospero church records of Marianopoli, Sicily, the baptism of Carmelo is recorded on page 83 #37 3/20/1895 with the side note on 6/9/1935 Carmelo married Maria Selvaggio {Mary Savage} in St. John Rectory in Quincy, Mass.

They had no children. Carmelo and Mary ran a beauty shop on Germain Ave., in Quincy in the 1930s. Carmelo was a barber and Mary was a hairdresser. In the 1940s their beauty shop was on 21 Granite St.

My dad's favorite story to tell about his brother Charlie (who was 4'10) was having to come home after school as a teenage to violin lessons. Charlie, the older brother would demand that my father go upstairs and practice. One day after Charlie left the house, my father stopped practicing and was checking out his brother's clothes in the closet. He tried on one of his dress shirts and discovered he couldn't button the collar. When Charlie came home and found his brother not practicing he threatened him as usual. My dad stood up to him and said his days playing the violin were over. Charlie looked at him, up and down, then agreed.

viii. Maria Margherita Elena Adelaide Elvira "Mary" LoDico was born on 25 Oct 1901

in Marianopoli, Caltanissetta, Sicily, Italy. She died on 15 Sep 1992 at the age of 90 in Quincy, Norfolk, Massachusetts, United States. She had Social Security Number 013-50-4179. Mary was buried in Quincy, Norfolk, Massachusetts, United States. Maria (Mary) married Americo Faiella and lived at 15 Newton St., Mansfield, Mass. with Americo at her father Ignazio's house according to the 1920 census.

My Aunt Mary once told me of the story of her arrival at Ellis Island as a child of 10. She recalled being separated along with her sister Giovanna (Jenny) from her mother Francesca and baby brother Vincenzo by a doctor. They both had eye infections. She recalled every morning the doctor would take her to the window and reach in his lab coat for a small green stone. He would then rub it across her eye. This was very painful and made her cry. One day while at lunch, she spotted her mother across the crowded hall. The family was finally reunited.

Years later, while watching a special show on Ellis Island, they spoke of an common eye infection by emigrating Italians. Called 'Mediterranean Eye' or Trachoma, a doctor would treat the encrustation around the eye by rubbing a small jade colored bar of medicine (copper based) on the eye. After a few weeks the infection was reduced and emigration was allowed.

Mathew had a taxicab business, called Chappie's Coaches. He would take people down the south shore to the beaches in the summer and returned them after a day at the beach. One of my mother's earliest recollections is riding with her father in the taxi/coach. There was a small seat to the left of the driver's seat, almost built into the door. My mother must have been about 5 [1925] and she would ride down and back with her father.

112. Ignazio LoDico was born about Nov 1804 in Blufi -Petrulia Soprana, Sicilia, Italy. He was born in 1806. He died on 22 Aug 1844 at the age of 39 in Blufi -Petrulia Soprana, Sicilia, Italy. Ignazio was buried in Blufi -Petrulia Soprana, Sicilia, Italy. Birth records for Francesco Paolo & Luciano indicate Ignazio LoDico was a Barbieri (barber), living in the part of Petralia Soprana known as Blufi. Maria Albanese and Ignazio LoDico were married on 23 Jan 1830 in Petralia Soprana, Sicilia, Italy. Ignazio Lodico, age 24 a bachelor and 'barbiere' [barber] married Maria Albanese, age 19 on January 23, 1830. Ignazio resided in the quartiere of Petralia Soprana known as Malpasso. Ignazio's father was Maestro Francesco Paolo Lodico, age 51 and a farmer. Ignazio's mother was Arcangela Vaccarella, age 50.

Maria Albanese's father, Agostino Albanese was 49 and a farmer. Her mother Rosaria Gennaro was deceased. Luciano Gennaro [most likely Maria's grandfather, age 66, a farmer living in Blufi, a quartiere of Petralia Soprana, and Pietro Puleo, age 49, a farm hand were witnesses.

113. Maria Albanese was born about 1810 in Petralia Soprana, Palermo, Sicily, Italy. She died in Petralia Soprana, Palermo, Sicily, Italy. She was buried in Petralia Soprana, Palermo, Sicily, Italy.

Ignazio LoDico and Maria Albanese had the following children:

- i. Maria Santa LoDico was born on 2 Nov 1830 in Blufi -Petralia Soprana, Sicilia, Italy. She died on 7 Jun 1907 at the age of 76 in Petralia Soprana, Palermo, Sicily, Italy. She was buried in Petralia Soprana, Palermo, Sicily, Italy. Maria Santa LoDico lived at Villa Vaccarella #26
- 56 ii. Francesco Paolo LoDico, born 14 Dec 1832, Blufi -Petralia Soprana, Sicilia, Italy; died 1 Jan 1907, Marianopoli, Caltanissetta, Sicily, Italy.
- iii. Luciano LoDico was born on 12 Oct 1835 in Petralia Soprana, Palermo, Sicily,

Italy. He died on 23 Nov 1899 at the age of 64 in Marianopoli, Caltanissetta, Sicily, Italy. He was buried in Marianopoli, Caltanissetta, Sicily, Italy. Luciano listed his occupations, with each child, as follows: campiere (armed field guard) (1870 & 1880); mounted soldier (1873- 1878); mounted guard (1882); mounted soldier (1887); soldier (1880); and finally a 'soprastante' (overseer) (1892).

A 'soprastante' was charged, by the land-owner or leaseholder, to take charge of the management of an estate. The 'soprastante', as a rule, were strong men and were recruited for this post, from those who were able to 'make themselves respected -- inspire fear -- among the people of the estates, as well as outsiders.

Most overseers were men of confidence (uomo di fiducia) of the 'gabelloto' lease-owner. He dealt with the peasants set to work on the estates and took care of the general protection of the enterprise. He was usually assisted by an armed campiere on horseback, who watched over the fields, crops, and animals.

Like the overseer, a campiere (armed field guard) had a reputation for toughness, which they advertised by their arrogant airs and their carrying of arms. The ways in which some of them dressed, moved around, and squinted, symbolized toughness. Their reticence and the opaque ambiguity of phrases, gestures, and mimic signs they used among their peers set them apart from ordinary people.

Though these strong arm men were, at times, strikingly polite and cordial, their general behavior and outfit expressed a capacity and willingness to coerce with physical violence. The campiere constituted a kind of private police force which, in the absence of an efficient formal control apparatus, claimed to maintain law and order in the countryside.

He was buried in Termini Imerese, Palermo, Sicilia, Italia. The name of Termini Imerese derives from Latin Thermae Himerenses that means "thermal baths". In its territory there are ruins of settlements of Paleolithic period and of Bronze and Copper ages. The town of Thermae rose after the destruction of the nearby Himera when a group of survivors settled there and founded a town center.

During the Roman period, the town grew quickly and many majestic works like the aqueduct Cornelio, were completed, but is now in ruins.

In 828 it was conquered by Arabs who enlarged and improved the city. With the Normans it became a central town. The emperor Carlo V who settled there round 1540, built the first city walls for fortification. Most of this wall ceases to exist.

Today, Termini Imerese is a large industrial city with many factories and a large electrical generation plant which supplies much of the electrical power for Sicily.

The main monuments in Termini Imerese include: The fifteenth-century Chiesa of S. Caterina (Church of St. Catherine); The Chiesa of S. Maria della Consolazione (Church of St. Mary of the Consolation), which is decorated with stuccoes by the school of Serpotta; The Duomo of the XVII century Chiesa of S. Francesco (Church of St. Francis) and it's nearby convent that has been changed into a school.

Eleventh Generation

1792. Cristofaro LoDico was born about 1670 in Malpasso -Petràlia Soprana, Sicilia, Italy.
Origins of the name LODICO from the Petralia's of the Madonie Region of Sicily

The surname is widespread in the two Petralia's since ancient times. In Petralia Sottana, in the "civil registry" of the seventeenth century, it is found in the "Laudico" version.

Three possible etymologies are hypothesized:

1) could be a patronymic and derived from the Nordic name Ludwig, Lodovico;

2) It could derive from the Latin "laudes dico", in affinity with the word "laudicenus", with the sense of a complimented and interested person.

However, none of these interpretations explains why the two Lodico and Laudico versions coexisted even in the same historical periods, nor why the Lodico surname is found almost exclusively in Sicily, with a high concentration in the Madonie, and not in other areas invaded by the Normans, or subject to the Roman Empire.

3) To these questions instead answers one last hypothesis: the surname derives from "Laodikeia" (in Greek: Λαοδικεία) or "Laodicea", a name used by the Hellenistic dynasty of the Seleucids and was therefore imported locally from Hellenistic or Arab settlers, to indicate their city of origin.

After the death of Alexander, the Great, on most of his domains in 323 BC his general Seleucus I took over, which gave life to the Seleucid empire, including Syria, Persia and Asia Minor, and which also extended to the Sicilian Greek colonies.

Seleucus I, in memory of his mother Laodice, founded five cities named Laodikèia. They were also created in Greece.

The most populous still exists in Syria and retains the name of al-Lādhīqiyya.

A proof of this last interpretation is found in some examples of the surname "Laudica", found in inscriptions of ancient Rome, and which scholars agree to be of Hellenistic origin.

Centuries later, a fraction of Petralia Soprana, Santa Caterina LoDico, took its name from the LoDico families who had created it.

The story of the LoDico ancestry begins in Malpasso and is tied to one of the most ancient roads in Sicily.. By the end of the 17th century there was still one road that went from the coastal town of Catania, inland through the Madonie mountains to the north coastal town of Palermo. This roadway was one of the very first roads in Sicily and was used by the first of the island's inhabitants: the Sicans, Sicels, and Elymians. In its earliest times the towns of Centuripe and Agyrium brought an exchange of goods arriving by sea with ceramics and obsidian brought out from inland.

This road was later improved by the Romans and it passed through Blufi in a region called Malpasso [bad pass]. This was a dangerous stretch of road known for its steep ravines and high bluffs where criminals and others would attack and rob the travelers. The priests, pilgrims, and merchants complained to the Sicilian nobility and asked for protection.

The Marchese Pottino who owned many large estates of land and farms around Rusuttano and Blufi, including the ancestral Castello Irosa, entered into an agreement with three Sicilian campiere families: the LaTonas, the di Geracis, and the LoDicos.

In return for protecting the travelers on the road, the LoDico family was given the land known as Malpasso.

1920. Vincenzo Mormino was born (date unknown).

The town of Termini Imerese, whose population numbers about 26,000, is located on Sicily's North Coast in the province of Palermo, roughly mid-way between Cefalù and the Sicilian capital. Termini, as it is usually referred to, is about 38 kilometers east of Palermo or about 25 minutes by train or car. The town is divided into two parts: Termini Bassa (Lower Termini) and Termini Alta (Upper Termini). Almost all of the town's historical attractions are located in Termini Alta, since that area effectively comprises the town's old historic center. Lower Termini is where the railway-bus station and the hotels are located.

Termini is wedged in between the sea and the steeply-rising slopes of Monte San Calogero, the peak that marks the beginning of the Madonie Mountain Range which runs east towards Messina and South to the vicinity of Enna. Viewed from the sea, Termini presents a picture-postcard image of a Sicilian seaside town. The view from Termini looking out over the sea to Palermo is likewise spectacular. Termini is famous for its elaborate Carnival (Mardi Gras) festival, which is ranked along with Acireale's and Sciacca's Carnevaless as one of the best in Sicily.

The name Termini Imerese is derived from the Latin "Thermae Himerenses" or "Hot Springs of Himera." Indeed, the remains of arched Roman aqueducts are visible at Termini. The name also derives from the toponymic "Imera" which was the name the ancient Greeks applied to the settlement near present-day Termini that they came to occupy. The story of Imera is the only historically noteworthy episode that can be linked to the ancient history of Termini Imerese.

Imera was founded in 678 BC by Greek colonists from Zancle (Sickle), modern Messina. Zancle itself had been founded in the previous century by Greek colonists. It is probable that a prehistoric settlement already existed there, populated by Sicanians.

The Greek town of Imera represented the furthest westward penetration of the Greeks on the North Coast of Sicily, and thus, represented a threat to the Carthaginians, who had colonized the western area of Sicily and founded Palermo and Solunto, the latter city being only 30 kilometers distant from Imera. In 480 BC, the Carthaginians decided to invade the region. Hamilcar, a Carthaginian general who was an ancestor of the famous Hannibal who later fought the Romans, assembled an army said to number 30,000 men to march upon Imera. The Greeks of Imera sought and received help from their fellow Greeks of Agrigento and Syracuse. The three combined Greek armies literally massacred the Carthaginians, and thus the Carthaginian threat to the Sicilian Greeks was effectively eliminated, at least for the remainder of that century.

In 409 BC, Hannibal, grandson of Hamilcar, led a large Carthaginian army against Imera. This time, the Greeks were defeated and Imera was destroyed. It is believed that the survivors of the battle fled to either Termini or Caccamo (famous for its Norman castle), and founded the two towns or developed existing settlements.
