

First Generation

1. Vincenzo Mormino was born (date unknown).

The town of Termini Imerese, whose population numbers about 26,000, is located on Sicily's North Coast in the province of Palermo, roughly mid-way between Cefalù and the Sicilian capital. Termini, as it is usually referred to, is about 38 kilometers east of Palermo or about 25 minutes by train or car. The town is divided into two parts: Termini Bassa (Lower Termini) and Termini Alta (Upper Termini). Almost all of the town's historical attractions are located in Termini Alta, since that area effectively comprises the town's old historic center. Lower Termini is where the railway-bus station and the hotels are located.

Termini is wedged in between the sea and the steeply-rising slopes of Monte San Calogero, the peak that marks the beginning of the Madonie Mountain Range which runs east towards Messina and South to the vicinity of Enna. Viewed from the sea, Termini presents a picture-postcard image of a Sicilian seaside town. The view from Termini looking out over the sea to Palermo is likewise spectacular. Termini is famous for its elaborate Carnival (Mardi Gras) festival, which is ranked along with Acireale's and Sciacca's Carnevals as one of the best in Sicily.

The name Termini Imerese is derived from the Latin "Thermae Himerenses" or "Hot Springs of Himera." Indeed, the remains of arched Roman aqueducts are visible at Termini. The name also derives from the toponymic "Imera" which was the name the ancient Greeks applied to the settlement near present-day Termini that they came to occupy. The story of Imera is the only historically noteworthy episode that can be linked to the ancient history of Termini Imerese.

Imera was founded in 678 BC by Greek colonists from Zancle (Sickle), modern Messina. Zancle itself had been founded in the previous century by Greek colonists. It is probable that a prehistoric settlement already existed there, populated by Sicanians.

The Greek town of Imera represented the furthest westward penetration of the Greeks on the North Coast of Sicily, and thus, represented a threat to the Carthaginians, who had colonized the western area of Sicily and founded Palermo and Solunto, the latter city being only 30 kilometers distant from Imera. In 480 BC, the Carthaginians decided to invade the region. Hamilcar, a Carthaginian general who was an ancestor of the famous Hannibal who later fought the Romans, assembled an army said to number 30,000 men to march upon Imera. The Greeks of Imera sought and received help from their fellow Greeks of Agrigento and Syracuse. The three combined Greek armies literally massacred the Carthaginians, and thus the Carthaginian threat to the Sicilian Greeks was effectively eliminated, at least for the remainder of that century.

In 409 BC, Hannibal, grandson of Hamilcar, led a large Carthaginian army against Imera. This time, the Greeks were defeated and Imera was destroyed. It is believed that the survivors of the battle fled to either Termini or Caccamo (famous for its Norman castle), and founded the two towns or developed existing settlements.

Mathew had a taxicab business, called Chappie's Coaches. He would take people down the south shore to the beaches in the summer and returned them after a day at the beach. One of my mother's earliest recollections is riding with her father in the taxi/coach. There was a small seat to the left of the driver's seat, almost built into the door. My mother must have been about 5 [1925] and she would ride down and back with her father.

Richard Henry Fleischer

REPUBLIC P47 THUNDERBOLT FIGHTER ACE

Born in Lorraine, Ohio Sept. 6, 1919. Family moved to Quincy, Ma. when he was 13. Graduated from Quincy High in 1937.

Attended Bentley Business College, Boston and was in the graduating class of 1942.

Dick enlisted in the Army Air Corp in Sept. 1941, and graduated flying school, Victoria, Tx. on Oct. 9, 1942 with a 2nd Lieutenant Commission. A week later he married Helen J. Fredrickson, his high school sweetheart. They have been married nearly 65 years. One daughter, Marion. Dick served in the 340th Squadron, 348th Fighter Group, 5th Air Force. He was on the second Army troop ship out of New York and the first group of P47 pilots. After 2 days out, headed for Europe, orders changed, and they headed south to the Panama Canal and the South Pacific. Upon reaching the Pacific, they were joined by 5 other ships, including 3 destroyers. After zig-zagging across the Pacific for a month, they arrived in West New Guinea where he was stationed with the 5th Air Force.

Dick flew 202 missions in his "Jug" the "Solid Citizen". On March 11, 1944 he downed 2 Oscars over Wewak, earning his status as an Ace Pilot with 6 Air Victories.

Captain Richard H. Fleischer was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross with 2 OLCs, and the Air Medal with 9 OLCs.

The following is one of the many accounts of his service in the Army Air Corp.

"Blue Flight was standing on alert and was scrambled to intercept target, which later proved to consist of approximately 12 "val" dive bombers escorted by an equal number of fighters.

We climbed to 10,000 feet and through broken clouds, I spotted the wake of three of our PT boats zig-zagging through the water avoiding a dive bomber on his bomb-run! He missed, but the bomb caused a huge spout of water. I didn't take my eye off the Jap plane and yelled through the "mike", 'Bandits at three o'clock low and I'm going down'.

I dropped my wing tanks as the "val" was joining up with a loose formation of twelve bombers. I was closing too fast and throttled back to come under the formation at about a 20 degree angle. This done, I opened fire and saw the tracers hitting the engine and right wing. The plane caught fire, rolled over and into the sea. I did a wing-over and came down again behind another bomber, gave a long 4 second burst and almost shredded his tail. The plane just spun into the water. I had another shot at a bomber but didn't see the end results.

Hnatio and Brown were also having good results.

The Japanese were well scattered after this event and our kills were confirmed by the Navy. We claimed seven victories:

Hnatio 3

Brown 2

Myself 2

The Navy said 8 went into the water. This was no "Dog Fight", we 'just clobbered them' !!!

We never did understand why the Japanese fighters never dove down to engage us. We covered the PT boats for a short time and were relieved by another flight of P 47's.

Blue flight had been four planes, but the fourth man didn't get off."

He died on 18 Feb 2021 at the age of 102 in Cocoa, Brevard, Florida, United States. Robert S. (Bob) Comparato passed away on Thursday, February 18, 2021. He was born in Quincy, MA, on August 3, 1918, was 102 1/2 years old, and was amazingly active and always sharp as a tack. Bob was the son of the late Joseph Comparato and Mary Mormino Comparato. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wonderful wife of 55 years, Alice Lamb Comparato, who he met on a blind date mix-up while serving in WWII. He was also predeceased by his daughter, Donna C. Dean, her husband Richard Dean, and daughter-in-law, Debbie Osbourne Comparato.

Bob is survived by his son, Robert J. He taught Linda to keep score so he could have his own record of the game, while Alice and Donna helped in the concession stand. He had many grand adventures with Bob, Linda and Donna, as well as their spouses, other family members and friends.

He loved traveling the world and the US; and always made waves when he graced the dance floor

He also loved fishing either alone or with friends, and with his son-in-law, Richard. He was dearly loved by his parents, siblings, wife, children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, in-laws, cousins, nieces, nephews, extended family, army buddies, MA, VA and FL neighbors, friends, co-workers and acquaintances. Bob and Alice hosted countless family, friends and neighborhood get-togethers. They were loved by all. Bob had the unique ability to engage everyone he met, and bring them in to his circle of friends. Many considered him a surrogate father, and he embraced them all. He was especially proud of his grandchildren.

The Comparatos moved to Titusville in 1959. Bob worked for many of the aircraft companies at Cape Kennedy and was also a Labor Relations Specialist. After retirement, he worked with his son, Bob, for Josten's. The two Bobs were a big hit with the high school students they served! Bob and Alice were instrumental in the organization and construction of Teen Town, in order to give their teenagers and other teens a safe place to dance and have fun. Bob faithfully attended St. Teresa's Catholic Church, and after Alice's passing, Mims Methodist Church, with his girlfriend, Joanne Pacific. He lived with his son, Bob, and at Riverview Senior Living in his later years. He was most grateful for Bob's loving (and fun) care, and for Bob's girlfriend, Laura Lee Jennings, and her wonderful cooking, special treats and gifts.

A celebration of life will be held on March 6 at 2 pm at Brevard Memorial Funeral Home & Cemetery, 320 Spring Street, Cocoa, FL. 32927, and be live streamed from their Facebook page. A Facebook account is not needed to preview the service, and it will be available on the website, even after the service. Bob's son-in-law, Rev. Robert D. (Bob) Dukes will be officiating.
