Francesca Paola Barbara Restivo and Ignazio LoDico were married on 12 Sep 1896 in Marianopoli, Sicilia, Italy. Ignazio LoDico, son of Francesco Paolo LoDico and Salvatora Miserendino, was born on 22 Aug 1862 in Bompietro, Sicilia, Italy. He was buried in 1922 in Mansfield, Bristol, Massachusetts, United States. He died chronic glomernlar nephritis on 25 Mar 1922 at the age of 59 in Mansfield, Bristol, Massachusetts, United States. My father's only recollection of his father, my grandfather Ignazio, was that of a child around age 5 or 6. Ignazio died when my father was 7. My dad recalled that Ignazio would come home late from working in his barber shop off Pleasant St. in Mansfield, Mass., and empty his pockets full of change in his top dresser drawer. As a small boy, my father would sneak in the bedroom and go through the drawer and take a few coins. He said he never was caught.

My Uncle Americo Faiella, husband of Mary LoDico, recalled the time he approached Ignazio to ask for the hand of Mary and his blessing. Americo said Ignazio "called me down", referring to the fact that Ignazio thought it was time Americo, then a young man of 22, should begin to settle down and think of his future and how to act properly as a 'man' about to be married. Americo said Ignazio gave him cause to think and do the right thing.

My Aunt Angelina had the best recollection of her father Ignazio and the family's last days in Marianopoli. She was around 14 at the time. She recalls her older brother Frank had a bird and he made a cage for it. Frank was good with his hands. He raised the bird until one day the cat killed it. Saddened by this, Ignazio told him, "Get another bird".

In 1906, the family would often hold a dance with supper in Marianopoli. The family played a few instruments including the mandolin, guitar, and violin. Two rich kids came by and began to cause trouble so Ignazio kicked them out. When Frank left his music lessons, they were waiting for him. They pulled out their guns and beat him up. The left him at the doorstep at 4 o'clock in the morning. The doctor reported the beating to the police and one kid, Salvatore Marci was sent to jail. When he got out of jail, Francesca Paola was worried, so Frank left for America (Pennsylvania). In 1907, September, Francesca was still worried so Ignazio went to America for a second time. Then the others followed.

Francesco travels to Syracuse / Buffalo, NY to live with the Restivo or Ristagno family.

He married the former Catherine Lillian Cartwright Lanergan and they had 4 children together.

Francesco (Frank) was very proud to be American and was quite patriotic. He was a Barber by trade and a sign painter, but it was the depression, so the family was not wealthy, but they did alright considering the times.

Frank was renowned as a terrific gardener and grew squash and zucchini that were 3 ft long! We have photos of him holding one of his famous vegetables.

Frank had a reputation as a prankster. When he first opened his barber shop in Mansfield, Mass., in the late 1920's, he would constantly tease and joke with the old Italian men who came to hang out at the barber shop. One story tells of how he would entertain the men with tales of his fighting in the Risorgimento and as a Carbonari. He would tell them before he served as a Sicilian patriot he was tall and strong. He would say now, after years of fighting for Sicily, he was shrinking. He would point to the ceiling fan and show how he could just reach the pull cord. The next day he would come in early and shorten the cord. He would tell another tale and then end with reaching for the pull cord. The old men looked on in wonder as he could not reach the cord. Only when they agreed he was shrinking would he burst out in laughter and tell them the joke.

Frank died suddenly of heart failure when in his late 50's. His wife Catherine moved to Attleboro to live with her daughter Paula and they worked at Balfour Company in Attleboro, MA. When Joan was divorced from her husband, she joined her mother and sister and they resided together. Catherine (Kay) died in 1973 of heart failure.

Angelina emigrated from Marianopoli to Mansfield and went to work in Mansfield's chocolate factory the first week she arrived. She made $4 a week wages.

My grandfather Ignazio was famous for writing passion plays in Mansfield in the early years of living in Mansfield [1910-1920]. Angelina performed in these passion plays. The entire family played instruments, danced and sang and continued to entertain in Mansfield as they had done in Marianopoli, Sicily.

My earliest memories of Angelina was from 1956 and attending 1st grade. I would have to walk past her home and many times I would be ushered inside to have lunch. My Aunt Angelina spoke little English, yet I somehow understood enough of what she said. Her house was always filled with the smells of Sicilian twist bread and homemade pasta. It seemed she was always cooking, making breads and pastas, yet she lived alone.

My dad's favorite story to tell about his brother Charlie (who was 4'10) was having to come home after school as a teenage to violin lessons. Charlie, the older brother would demand that my father go upstairs and practice. One day after Charlie left the house, my father stopped practicing and was checking out his brother's clothes in the closet. He tried on one of his dress shirts and discovered he couldn't button the collar. When Charlie came home and found his brother not practicing he threatened him as usual. My dad stood up to him and said his days playing the violin were over. Charlie looked at him, up and down, then agreed.

Mary was buried in Quincy, Norfolk, Massachusetts, United States. Maria (Mary) married Americo Faiella and lived at 15 Newton St., Mansfield, Mass. with Americo at her father Ignazio's house according to the 1920 census.

My Aunt Mary once told me of the story of her arrival at Ellis Island as a child of 10. She recalled being separated along with her sister Giovanna (Jenny) from her mother Francesca and baby brother Vincenzo by a doctor. They both had eye infections. She recalled every morning the doctor would take her to the window and reach in his lab coat for a small green stone. He would then rub it across her eye. This was very painful and made her cry. One day while at lunch, she spotted her mother across the crowded hall. The family was finally reunited.

Years later, while watching a special show on Ellis Island, they spoke of an common eye infection by emigrating Italians. Called 'Mediterranean Eye' or Trachoma, a doctor would treat the encrustation around the eye by rubbing a small jade colored bar of medicine (copper based) on the eye. After a few weeks the infection was reduced and emigration was allowed.

Her home-made bread, like her older sister Angelina was very traditionally Sicilian.

Giovanna "Jenny" LoDico and Rodolfo Calimero Pietro Antonio Carmino Faiella were married on 15 Jun 1919 in Mansfield, Bristol, Massachusetts, United States. Rodolfo Calimero Pietro Antonio Carmino Faiella, son of Luigi Faiella and Eugenia Farneti, was born on 19 Jun 1895 in Prezza, L'Aquila, Italy. He died in Quincy, Norfolk, Massachusetts, United States. He was buried in Quincy, Norfolk, Massachusetts, United States. My Uncle Rodolfo (Rudy) Faiella was a professional wrestler in the 1920s. He was known as 'The Whirlwind'. The stories told by his brother Americo and sons Alfred and Luigi spoke of a man of great strength. Once he got a grip on his opponent, it was all over.

As young men, Americo and Rodolfo would travel from town to town giving wrestling demonstrations and challenging the Italian men to matches for money. Rodolfo rarely lost.

As one story goes, while standing in a railroad yard, Rodolfo and Americo were discussing a possible match with a group of men. Rodolfo looked down at a cast iron train rail and said he could lift it completely off the ground all by himself.

Everyone looked at the rail. It was a massive 'I' beam about 30 feet long. A few men tried to lift up one end and could barely get it a few inches off the ground. The bets were placed.

Rodolfo grabbed one end and hoisted over his shoulder. He walked down the rail to the center and lifted it off the ground in one quick move.

OBITUARY: Sally M. (Faiella) (Spadorcia) Saluti, died peacefully at home in the loving arms of her beloved daughters on Sunday, May 30, 2021. Born May 9, 1923, to the late Mary M. (LoDico) and Americo C. Faiella of Quincy. Sally grew up and lived much of her life in her childhood home on South Walnut Street in Quincy. She was proud and honored to share stories about her family's Italian heritage. Describing the immense love she had for her family, both past and present was bountiful. Her most prized accomplishment was raising her daughters. Elizabeth and Paula were at the center of her world each and every day. Sally worked as a crossing guard, known lovingly as Miss Sally at Massfield School in Wollaston, when her children were young, and finished out her working career as a payroll clerk at the South Postal Annex Boston. Celebrating Sally's 98th birthday this past May was a special reminder that life is precious and valuable. Sally lived fruitfully knowing her family was beside her throughout her amazing life. Baking, bowling, reading, word puzzles, playing go fish, watching the Wheel and sharing her views on world events are some of Sally's pastimes. She had a kind, yet stern knowledgeable way to teach life lessons and offer advice. Visiting with family over a cup of coffee (rocket fuel) and fresh baked Italian biscotti was Sally's ideal start to the day. Her passions were writing poetry and song which she shared lovingly with her family. Singing "Good Moring to You!" or "When You're Driving" to name a few. Sally was "The Great Oak" strong and tall; she was a Queen. Sally was predeceased by her late husband, the love of her life, Albert P. Spadorcia, her second husband, John Saluti, and longtime partner, Chester E. Bakaur. Survived by her cherished and devoted daughters, Elizabeth M. (Spadorcia) Marini of South Weymouth, and Paula F. (Spadorcia) and her husband Umberto Cristina who was a loving son-in-law of Whitman. Devoted grandmother "Grambo" to Jessica Cristina and James Murphy, Laura and Lamarr Lee, Alicia and Wayne Miller, Andrea and Eric Finn, Daniel II and Jill Marini, Paul and Stephanie Cristina and Aimee and Eric Dowd, Her great-grandchildren, Jarrod, Haley, Brittney, Myah, Nina, Autumn, Paul Jr., Lamarr Jr., Reese, River, Leland, Adriana, Logan, James Jr., Daniel III and great great-granddaughter, Audrey Beth. Also survived by her loving sister-in-law, Alice Faiella, countless nieces, nephews and cousins both near and far. Predeceased by her loving siblings, Norma Proto and husband Joseph, Louie Faiella and Frances Andronico and husband Leo and her precious niece Linda Proto and son-in-law Stephen Otis. "Youhoo" was her way of saying hello and "So Long" was her good-bye. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to greet the family during the visiting hours on Wednesday 4-8 pm in the McDonald Keohane Funeral Home, at 809 Main Street (Rte 18 opp. So. 126. Robert "Bobby" Plante (Rena Eunice Albertini-5, Angela LoDico-4, Francesca Paola Barbara Restivo-3, Carmelo-2, Francesco Paolo-1) was born on 17 Feb 1947 in Attleboro, Bristol, Massachusetts, United States. He died on 24 Sep 2014 at the age of 67 in Martha's Vineyard, Massachusetts, United States. OBIT: Longtime charter boat Captain Robert A. Plante of Oak Bluffs, better known as "Edgar," a man of strong convictions, who passed on his love of the ocean and fishing to a wide circle of those close to him and his many clients over the years, died Wednesday, Sept. 24, 2014, after suffering a long illness. Prudence Thatcher Magee, his best friend of 35 years and beloved wife of 12 years, his stepdaughter Molly Magee, and close friend Garreth Heath were by his side when he closed his eyes. He was 67.

Robert, known as both "Edgar" and "Bob" to family and friends, was born on Feb. 17, 1947, in North Attleboro. He graduated from North Attleboro High School in 1964.

Edgar joined the Army and served in Vietnam beginning in December 1965. A combat veteran, he received a Purple Heart with one Bronze Oak Leaf Cluster, a Vietnam Service Medal with one Bronze Service Star and a Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal with Device. He received an honorable discharge in September 1967. A proud veteran, Edgar was a member of the Disabled American Veterans and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Following his Army service, Edgar attended various colleges and ultimately received a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Massachusetts Amherst.

Edgar's love of fishing began at an early age, when his father would take him and his sister Eleanor to a canal in their neighborhood. He spent many summer days visiting his Aunt Babs, who loved him like a son, and they often fished together at a reservoir near the Head of the Bay at Buzzards Bay. He was a father figure to many, and taught his nephew Chris Clark, close friend Garreth Heath, and many others to fish, and encouraged both Chris and Garreth to become boat captains.

Kind, quick-witted, and gregarious are only a few of the adjectives friends and family use to describe Edgar. He had the courage of his convictions, and firm beliefs that he stood by. Fun-loving and adventurous, Edgar loved to travel, especially to warm climates to test the waters fishing.

Edgar was a longtime resident and member of the business and social community on Martha' s Vineyard. His charter fishing-boat business was born in Oak Bluffs harbor in the late 1970s on board the The Piano, and subsequently The Banjo. Many have wonderful fish stories that all begin aboard the deck of The Banjo, which he shared with his Labs Slick and Rip.

Edgar and Prudy were married aboard The Banjo by his nephew and first mate, Chris Clark, on Sept. 15, 2002. His best man was John Grimes.

Edgar' s impact on the lives of others cannot be adequately expressed, and he will be missed beyond measure by those who had the chance to know and love him. Many more lives will be touched by the memories that he leaves behind and the lessons he taught, which will be shared for years to come.

Deborah Lynn Clark and Matthew Steven Gould were married on 16 Oct 2004 in North Attleboro, Bristol, Massachusetts, United States. Matthew Steven Gould, son of Maxwell G. Gould and Eileen M. Dupelle, was born on 21 Jun 1968. He died on 26 Dec 2012 at the age of 44 in Boston, Suffolk, Massachusetts, United States. Matthew Stephen Gould, 44, of South Washington Street, North Attleboro, died early Wednesday, December 26, 2012 at Children's Hospital Medical Center in Boston, Massachusetts. He was surrounded by his loving wife and best friend, Deborah Clark Gould, and his devoted parents Maxwell G. and Eileen "Pat" M. (Dupelle) Gould and his sister-in-law, Donna Clark. In his last days he was surrounded by many of his family and friends. Born in Attleboro, Massachusetts on June 21, 1968, Matt was a courageous man that fought a long hard battle having been diagnosed with Cystic Fibrosis at the age of six months. Matt later received a lung transplant at the University Hospital in Minnesota in October of 1994 after which he spent much time traveling with family and friends most notably in Germany, California and Mexico where he bungee jumped much to the delight of his parents. Other than a short period of time when Matt lived in Florida with friends, he was a lifelong resident of North Attleboro and graduated from North Attleboro High School in 1986. Many of his high school friends were among those that Matt lived with in his earlier years creating lasting memories and friendships that remained throughout his life until his final hours. Prior to his lung transplant Matt worked for Paramount Cards with his father after having attended New England Tech. In April of 2002 Matt had a kidney donated to him from his father. In May of 2003 he began dating Deborah Clark to whom he was married on October 16, 2004. Matt and Debbie made their home together in North Attleboro where Matt spent much of his time working on projects with his mother, Pat. Matt loved music and enjoyed playing the guitar. He will be lovingly remembered by his family and friends as a kind, caring, and compassionate young man. He enjoyed life to the fullest and expressed his creativity through photography, music and landscaping. He had a quick wit that at times appeared irreverent but his sense of humor was enjoyed by many. Matt had a keen intelligence and interest in exploring philosophy, astronomy, psychology and the physics of the universe. His intellectual curiosities were as varied as the New England weather. He enjoyed in depth analysis of any controversial subject anyone would dare to discuss with him. In addition to his wife and parents, Matthew is survived by his wife's parents: Arthur and Eleanor (Plante) Clark; his brother-in-law: Christopher Clark and his wife, Heather; his sister-in-law: Donna Clark and his nieces and nephews Ryan Gould, Shane Gould, Kyle Gould.
